

Pieropan Soave Classico 2008 $32

Soave is the lovely, supple white wine of Verona in northern Italy, and Pieropan is one of the best producers. Based on the local garganega grape, this has a subtle honey, herb and stone fruit nose that heads seamlessly into a smooth, ripe palate of easy texture with a crisp, clean finish. (Screw cap, 12.5 per cent alc.)

Cellaring? drink over three years.

Food idea: pan-fried fish.
